

What Canadians want

Canadian designers pick their favourite frames

Craig Saunders

We asked Canadian designers and people who put together Canadian collections to think about their Spring/Summer 2010 frames, pick their favourite and tell us why it's their fave.

Here's what they chose.

“Although this amazing frame is a part of our qt-pie children’s collection, it sells exceedingly well to petite ladies. The gentle upsweep provides a natural 'lift' around the eye area; the semi-rimless bottom allows depth to be added to fit a progressive lens if needed; and the dazzling colors instantly brighten up any complexion.”
